CHAPTER 276.

AN ACT to amend section 517, chapter 27, Sanborn and Berryman's annotated statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 517, chapter 27, of Sanborn and Berryman's annotated statutes of Wisconsin, is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section the following: "Provided, that no subdistrict shall be maintained or hereafter formed which has residing within its limits less than fifteen children of school age; provided further, that any subdistrict may maintain so many branch schools as the convenience of the school population may require," so that said section when amended shall read as follows: Section 517. New subdistricts may be formed, and the boundaries of any subdistrict may be altered by the town board of directors at any regular meeting of said board; but the formation and alteration of any joint subdistrict shall be by concurrent action of the boards of directors of all the towns embraced in part in such subdistricts; provided, that no subdistrict shall be maintained or hereafter formed which has residing within its limits less than fifteen children of school age; provided further, that any subdistrict may maintain so many branch schools as the convenience of the school population may require.

Relating to the formation of subdistricts.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1895.
